

I am writing to express my opposition to media monopolies. Media is a business, and to ensure quality, diversity, and local programming more competition is needed, not less. As it is, we have three major broadcasters: ABC, NBC, and CBS. We can see what having the Big Three in Detroit has done for our auto industry, so let's not make another mistake.

Israel